The Valley of Saints, a unique site in the world in the heart of Brittany

To visit the Valley of Saints is to unveil a glimpse of Brittany's history, get in direct contact with art and travel through a world of marvellous legends and ancient rituals.

On a natural site at an altitude of 230m above sea level, offering a panoramic view of Central Brittany, the Valley of Saints invites you to discover monumental statues of 4m high on average, representing Breton saints.

The Breton saints thus honoured are mostly monks and scholars from Great Britain and Ireland. They evangelized Armorica in the early Middle Ages. They left an important and varied heritage which is still very much present in Brittany and Great Britain.

NOT TO BE MISSED IN 2021 : 15 new statues

- More than 150 monumental statues to be viewed on the site
- 3 sculpting sessions which can be viewed by the public

Since 2009 passionate sculptors have come together to work huge blocks of Breton granite and demonstrating their skill. The crazy target is to reach 1000 statues.

SESSIONS 2021 : 26 April - 23 May
7 June - 4 July / 23rd August - 19th September

Formula 1 : Guided Tour - 1h

Guide's advice: We recommend you allow extra free time (30 minutes to 1 hour) to explore the entire site (16 acres), observe the sculptors at work when they are present, visit our souvenir shop with its new photo exhibition area, and discover Saint Gildas chapel.

Firstly, your guide explains what the Valley of Saints is about why and how monumental statues are erected each year and who are the Breton personalities represented. Your group will be able to appreciate our site which has been occupied by mankind for thousands of years, from prehistory to the Middle Ages, which left the remains of a feudal mound.

A large part of your visit will be devoted to discovering several statues and their mysterious attributes.

The guide will recount some Breton legends. For example : How did Saint Paol-Aurelian save the inhabitants of Batz Island from a terrible dragon? How did Saint Tenenan cure leprosy instantly ? Many questions will be answered to afford you a deeper understanding.

Formula 2 : Guided Tour 45min + Quiz 1h

For Work Committee-type groups, company seminars, and for those who wish to organise an interactive, fun and friendly outing, combining cultural discovery and games.

The activity begins with a 45-min guided tour that allows for everyone to be able to ask questions.

Afterwards, the participants will be divided into several groups. Which team will then be the fastest to solve the puzzles in quiz ?

→ A prize awaits the winning team !

The objective is to create a team spirit through a fun challenge that will allow all the participants to become involved in their visit. Each team will have its own name with its own personalized quiz.
